1. ABOUT THIS CONTRACT

1.1 These Terms explain your rights and responsibilities and those of Union Bank UK plc in respect of the use of the Internet Banking Service and are in addition to, and should be read in conjunction with, the terms and conditions which apply to the operation of the account you are accessing through the Internet Banking Service.

1.2 Please read these Terms carefully before you use the Website as by using the Internet Banking Service you indicate that you accept these Terms and agree to abide by them.

1.3 We have explained below the meaning of some words and phrases we use in these Terms.

"Contract" means the contract entered into between us and you when you accept the Terms.

"Instruction" is any request or instruction to us, which is effected through the Internet Banking Service by use of your User ID, Password and Transaction Password.

"Internet Banking Service" is the service provided by us to you which is described in the Terms and by which you may access information and give us payment instructions in respect of certain of your accounts with us.

We also make additional functions available to you such as the facility to stop cheques and a secure "Customer Messages" facility.

"User ID" is the unique identifier, which is issued to you by us in connection with the Internet Banking Service.

"Password" is the password issued by us and then adopted by you for accessing the Internet Banking Service.

"Transaction Password" is the password issued by us and then adopted by you for authenticating transfers initiated via the Internet Banking Service.

"Terms" means these terms and conditions and any supplementary terms and conditions that we notify to you relating to the Internet Banking Service, and includes such terms and conditions as amended from time to time.

"User Guide" means the guidance and information set out in the 'Internet Banking Services User Guide' pages of the Internet Banking Service and all other guidance issued by us in connection with the Internet Banking Service, as amended from time to time. This document is available for download from the Website.

"Website" means www.unionbankuk.com.

"We, "us" and "our" are references to Union Bank UK plc and may include any agents we appoint to provide all or any of the Internet Banking Service.

"You", "your" and "yours" are references to the person requesting the Internet Banking Service.

1.4 You agree that any use by you of the Internet Banking Service shall constitute your acceptance of the Terms. We recommend that you store or print off a copy of the Terms for your records.

1.5 You authorize us to add all accounts (including joint accounts) that you hold with us now to the Internet Banking Service. If you open any accounts with us in the future which are available under the Internet Banking Service you must request us to add them.

1.6 Some accounts may not be accessed using the Internet Banking Service. For details of accounts which can currently be accessed by the Internet Banking Service please refer to the User Guide.

2. SECURITY

2.1 You agree to comply with the Terms and any security procedures mentioned in them.

2.2 You must keep your User ID, Password and Transaction Password secure and secret at all times and take reasonable steps to prevent unauthorized use of them. You should never write or otherwise record the User ID, Password or Transaction Password in any way that can be understood by someone else or tell the User ID, Password or Transaction Password to someone else including our staff.

2.3 Always securely destroy any advice from us concerning your User ID, Password or Transaction Password promptly after receipt; avoid Password and Transaction Password which may be easy to guess such as birthdays, telephone numbers, names of family members.

2.4 We will never ask you for your User ID, Password and Transaction Password. Any such requests must be reported to us immediately, in person or by telephone. We may ask you to confirm the details of the request in writing.

2.5 Once you have logged on to the Internet Banking Service, you must not leave the terminal or other device from which you have accessed the Internet Banking Service at any time or let anyone else use it until you have logged off the Internet Banking Service. You will be responsible for ensuring that you have logged off the Internet Banking Service at the end of any session.

2.6 You must tell us immediately, in person or by telephone or in writing of any unauthorized access to the Internet Banking Service or any unauthorised transaction or Instruction which you know of or suspect or if you suspect someone else knows, or you are aware of the loss, theft or misappropriation of your User ID, Password and Transaction Password. Our Internet Banking Service Helpline number is +44 (0) 207 920 6139 and is available from 9am to 5pm UK time, Monday to Friday (except Bank Holidays). If you use the Helpline outside these hours you must leave a recorded message. We may ask you to confirm the details in writing.

2.7 We strongly recommend that you install anti-virus and personal firewall software on your PC in order to keep it secure and that you do not access the Internet Banking Service from a public computer (e.g. an internet Café).

2.8 Always treat emails you receive from senders claiming to be us with caution and be wary of emails or calls asking you for any personal security details.

2.9 Always access the Internet Banking Service by typing our website address into your web browser. Never go to our site from a link in an email and then enter personal details.

2.10 We will ensure that the personalized security features of your User ID, Password and Transaction Password are not accessible to persons other than to you.

2.11 We will not send any unsolicited User ID, Password and PIN Transaction Password, except where such information has already been issued to you and is being replaced.

3. PROCESSING YOUR INSTRUCTIONS

3.1 An instruction will only be accepted by us through the Internet Banking Service if it has been effected using an appropriate User ID, Password and Transaction Password but we will not further check the authenticity of an instruction. Details of transactions accepted during a session will be available and should be checked by the user. Please refer to the Internet Banking Service User Guide.

3.2 We may refuse to act on an Instruction, for example if a transaction exceeds a particular value or other limit, or if we know of or suspect a breach of security. We will notify you if this occurs, by telephone or fax or email.

3.3 We will use reasonable efforts to inform you without undue delay through the Internet Banking Service, and/or our Website if any service under the Internet Banking Service is not available.

3.4 Certain Instructions may only be processed during normal banking hours (Section 10 of General T&Cs) even though the Internet Banking Service may be accessible outside such hours.

4. STOPPING OR SUSPENDING YOUR USE OF THE SERVICE

4.1 We have the right to stop or suspend your use of the Internet Banking Service at any time if:

- a) We have reasonable concerns about the security of your User ID, Password or Transaction Password;

b) We reasonable suspect there has been or will be unauthorised or fraudulent use of the service; or

c) We reasonably believe that your use of the Internet Banking Service will increase the risk that you will be unable to repay a debt you owe us.

4.2 If we are stopping or suspending your use of the Internet Banking Service we will let you know either in advance (if this is possible) or immediately afterwards. We will contact you by telephone and/or e-mail and inform you that we are stopping your use of the service (and/or disabling any User ID, Password or Transaction Password). We will provide our reasons for doing so unless we believe that so doing would compromise security or be otherwise unlawful.

4.3 We may need to suspend the Internet Banking Service for maintenance or other reasons. Where possible, we will notify you in advance via an Internet Banking Service bulletin message.

5. JOINT ACCOUNT HOLDERS

5.1 If you have a joint account then any one of you may use our Internet Banking Service but you must use your own User ID, Password and Transaction Password and register separately. To be able to use our Internet Banking Service your account will be set up so that any one of you can authorize any Instructions to us on your own. This is the case even if both of you, or two or more of you are otherwise required to authorize Instructions jointly.

5.2 In submitting your application for Internet Banking Services, you confirm your joint account holder(s) is/are happy for you to access your joint accounts via the Internet Banking Service.

5.3 However, we may terminate or suspend your use of the Internet Banking Service immediately on all your accounts if any joint account holders notify us:

- They never consented to your application for the Internet Banking Service (in which case you agree to indemnify us for any costs or losses that we incur as a result),
- The joint account can no longer be operated on your instructions alone, or
- They will no longer let you operate the joint account using Internet Banking Services.

5.4 As a joint account holder, these terms apply to you individually and jointly with the other account holder(s).

6. YOUR LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORISED TRANSACTIONS

6.1 We will refund you the amount of any transaction carried out in accordance with any instruction where User ID, Password or Transaction Password has been used without your authority, other than in the circumstances set out in Condition 6.2. Where we are liable for any unauthorised transaction, we will credit your account with any money lost up to the amount of the transaction, and any related interest and charges. We will have no further liability to you.

6.2 You will be responsible for all losses incurred in respect of unauthorised transactions if you have acted fraudulently or you have intentionally, or acting very carelessly, failed to perform any of your security obligations stated in Condition 2 or elsewhere in these Terms.

6.3 Once you have notified us of any unauthorised access to the Internet Banking Service or unauthorised Instruction or that you suspect that someone else knows your User ID, Password or Transaction Password, you will not be responsible for any unauthorised transactions subsequently carried out using the Internet Banking Service unless we can show you have acted fraudulently.
